We only accept European coaching qualifications (UEFA certified) as a mandatory requirement for the UEFA B License. We do not accept foreign coaching licenses or certificates as a prerequisite and you will therefore have to sign up to the UEFA C course, before progressing onto the UEFA B.

In addition, a cross-border application for coaches' education abroad is required. This is mandatory to be signed by your national football association. There are regulations for an aptitude test like sending a video how you work with a football team (topic given by BFV) or you can verify your players history at least with a 3rd league level.
